R. Bank. P. 2014(a), 2016 and 5002 authorizing the employment and retention of Christian & Small, LLP ("Christian & Small" or the "Firm") as the Trustee's counsel as of May 1, 2012. In support of this Application, the Trustee respectfully states as follows:

Jurisdiction

2. Venue of these cases and this Application is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are Sections 327(a) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Background

4. On December 16, 2011 (the "Petition Date"), Small Loans, Inc., The Money Tree, Inc., The Money Tree of Louisiana, Inc., The Money Tree of Florida Inc., and The Money Tree of Georgia Inc. (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary chapter 11 bankruptcy cases in this Court.¹

5. The Debtors' history and the events leading up to their bankruptcy filings have already been set out in numerous pleadings filed with this Court and the Trustee will not retread over the same ground again here.

maximize the return to creditors. Accordingly, the Trustee respectfully requests the entry of an order pursuant to Section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2014(a) authorizing the Trustee to employ and retain the firm of Christian & Small as the Trustee's counsel to perform the legal services that will be necessary for the prosecution of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases.

8. The Trustee seeks to retain Christian & Small as the Trustee's attorneys because of the Firm's extensive experience and knowledge in the field of debtors' and creditors' rights and the chapter 11 process and because of its expertise, experience and knowledge practicing before bankruptcy courts, and its ability to quickly respond to all issues that may arise in these chapter 11 cases. In preparing to represent the Trustee in these chapter 11 cases, Christian & Small has become familiar with the Debtors' business and affairs and many of the potential legal issues that may arise. Accordingly, the Trustee believes that Christian & Small is both well qualified and uniquely able to represent the Trustee in an efficient and timely manner.

9. Christian & Small intends to apply for compensation for services rendered in connection with the chapter 11 cases, subject to this Court's approval and in compliance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, this Court's local rules and orders of this Court. The Firm will request compensation on an hourly basis, plus reimbursement of actual, necessary expenses and other charges the Firm incurs. - (iv) prepare on behalf of the Trustee all motions, applications, answers, orders, reports, and papers necessary to the administration of the estates;
- (v) negotiate and prepare on the Trustee's behalf any plans of reorganization, disclosure statements, and all related agreements and/or documents, and take any necessary action on behalf of the Trustee to obtain confirmation of such plans;
- (vi) advise the Trustee in connection with any potential sale of assets;
- (vii) appear before this Court and any appellate courts, and protect the interests of the Debtors' estates before such Courts;
- (viii) advise the Trustee regarding the maximization of value of the estates for their creditors; and
- (ix) perform all other necessary legal services and provide all other necessary legal advice to the Trustee in connection with these chapter 11 cases.

11. To the best of the Trustee's knowledge, and except as disclosed in the attached affidavit of Daniel D. Sparks filed in connection herewith as Exhibit "A" pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2014 (the "Affidavit"), Christian & Small has not represented the Debtors' creditors, equity security holders, or any other parties in interest, or their respective attorneys and accountants, the Bankruptcy Administrator or any person employed in the Office of the Bankruptcy Administrator in any matters relating to the Debtors or their estates.
