Dear Sirs,

Case No. 11-12254

I am objecting to paying Max A. Moseley, debtor's Attorney. They knowing the debtors did not have any money to pay their bills, they should have had their money before coming to court. The money is coming from me and it would be stupid of me or any other to pay this. Mr. Bellville should pay the attorney. Please do not pay them the money. The debtors have used their lengthening stay in bankruptcy to liquidate their assets and pay insiders the proceeds. The courts need to tell them what Money Tree told us "it is with regret and sadness" and then give them no money.

Will you also make a ruling for Christian & Small LLP to not send me any more mail? I read all of the reports on the internet. Can you also save money for other by not mailing reports, we will read them on the internet? We cannot do anything about it. Please help and save money for others. If I could have the money that you will pay them for mail, it will be all I need from money tree.

Thank You,

William B. Finney
