

Alpha Protective Services, Inc.

c/o Hays Financial Consulting, LLC

3343 Peachtree Road, Suite 200

Atlanta, GA 30326

February 26, 2013

Dear Former Employee of Alpha Protective Services Inc.:

As you know, in December the bankruptcy case of Alpha Protective Services, Inc. ("Alpha") was converted from Chapter 11 reorganization to Chapter 7 liquidation. As a result, wages you earned over the last few weeks of your employment were not paid.

Wages earned during the Chapter 11 case are referred to as "Administrative Expenses" and the court has established a bar date by which you must file a claim to have your wages paid. The bar date is March 31, 2013 and a copy of the Order and Notice Establishing Bar Date is available at www.haysconsulting.net/Alpha_Protective_Services. In addition, you have a claim for vacation pay earned prior to the original filing, but not used. Accordingly, you need to file claims with the Bankruptcy Court for Administrative Expense (identified as the "Post-Petition Claim" on attached schedule) and for a General Unsecured Claim (identified as "Pre-Petition" on attached).

You must complete the attached forms, sign and date, and then mail to the Bankruptcy Court no later than March 31, 2013 to have valid claims. You should include the attached page showing the claim amount as backup for each form. You must file using the two different claim forms attached. Your claim for Post-Petition wages should be placed on the form marked "Request for Administrative Expense Claim" at the top, and your claim for Pre-Petition Vacation Pay should be included on the other form attached.

To ensure the correct processing of your claim, please fill out the forms as follows. If we do not mention a box in the list below, please leave that box blank:

For the post-petition wage amounts, fill out the "Request for Administrative Expense Claim" as follows:

Line 1, Amount of claim: Your claim amount is listed on a separate sheet attached to this letter. Please write in the amount of the claim in the blank on Line 1.

Page 2, Declaration: Place the amount of the claim in the blank in the sentence beginning "Whereas".

Below that sentence, sign and date the form where indicated. Please print your name, address, and phone number on the form. Attach a copy of the sheet showing your claim amount to this form.

For the General Unsecured Claim (the pre-petition claim for vacation pay), fill out the Proof of Claim form as follows:

Name of Creditor: List your name as shown on your paycheck.

Name and Address where notices should be sent: List your name and address. Please provide a phone number where a voicemail or message may be left.

Name and Address where payment should be sent: Leave blank unless payments need to be sent to a different address.

Box 1, Amount of claim: Your claim amount is listed on a separate sheet attached to this letter. Do not check the box that asks if interest or other charges have been added to the claim. Your amount includes wages and compensation only. If you disagree with the amount we calculated, please call me to resolve any differences before filing your claim.

Box 2, Basis for claim: List "Unpaid Wages and Compensation"

Box 3, Last Four digits: Leave Blank

Box 3a, Debtor may have scheduled account as: Complete this only if you have recently changed your name and Alpha does not know of the change.

Box 4, Secured Claim: Leave blank. You do not have a secured claim.

Box 5, Amount of claim entitled to priority: Check the box next to "Wages, salaries, or commissions..." Do not check any other boxes in this section. At the bottom of this section, write the amount of the claim listed on the attached sheet. Put the amount in this box for the Post-Petition "Administrative Expense" claim and for the amount listed for Pre-Petition on the second form attached.

At the bottom of the form, sign and date the form where indicated. Attach a copy of the sheet showing your claim amount to this form.

Mail the both forms and their attachments to:

Clerk, United States Bankruptcy Court
433 Cherry Street
P.O. Box 1957
Macon, GA 31202

Pursuant to the Notice, you are also required to mail a copy of the forms to the trustee:

Neil C. Gordon
Arnall, Golden Gregory, LLP
171 17th Street NW Suite 2100
Atlanta, GA 30363-1031

Please note that filing a claim does not guarantee that you will receive payment for your claim. You may receive all, part, or none of the amount of your claim based on the funds available to creditors. Also, because your claim is for unpaid wages, you will be subject to income and social security taxes on any amount paid out to you.

If you have any questions regarding filing your proof of claim or the amount we calculated, please contact Brad Van Etten, Manager, Hays Financial Consulting, at 404-442-2467 or by email at bvanetten@haysconsulting.net.

Sincerely,

Brad Van Etten
Manager, Hays Financial Consulting, LLC
On behalf of Chapter 7 Trustee, Neil Gordon

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a).

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest and documents required by FRBP 3001(c) for claims based on an open-end or revolving consumer credit agreement or secured by a security interest in the debtor's principal residence. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONSDebtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom debtor owes a debt that was incurred before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment for a debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 506 (a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien.

A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATIONAcknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

REQUEST FOR ALLOWANCE AND PAYMENT OF CHAPTER 11
ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE CLAIM

The undersigned, the holder of a Chapter 7 administrative expense (the “Administrative Claim”) claim as defined by 11 U.S.C. § 503 that arose in the above captioned cases of Alpha Protective Services Inc., (the “Debtor”) on or after the conversion of the Bankruptcy Cases from Chapter 11 proceedings to proceedings under Chapter 7 on December 20, 2012, states as follows:

1. The undersigned holds a Chapter 7 Administrative Claim in the amount of $ _____ against Alpha Protective Services, Inc.

2. The consideration for the debt (or ground for this liability) owed by the Debtor is as follows:

Services performed by the creditor while an employee of Alpha Protective Services, Inc.

3. The Chapter 7 Administrative Claim is entitled to administrative expense priority under 11 U.S.C. § 503(b) because:

Employee performed services during the period from December 1, 2012 through December 21, 2012 for Alpha Protective Services. Wages and/or salaries due for that period have not been paid to the employee.

4. A copy of the writing on which the Chapter 7 Administrative Claim is founded, if any, is attached hereto or cannot be attached for the reason(s) set forth in the statement attached hereto.

5. All payments on the Chapter 7 Administrative Claim have been credited and deducted for the purpose of making this request.

6. The undersigned is aware that under 18 U.S.C. §§ 152 and 3571, the penalty for presenting a fraudulent claim in a bankruptcy case may include a fine of up to $500,000 or imprisonment for up to five years, or both.

WHEREFORE, the undersigned requests that the Bankruptcy Court allow the Chapter 7 Administrative Claim in the amount of $_____ to the undersigned, to be paid in accordance with the priorities set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.
